

I am a current supporter and listener of K-LOVE radio. I count on the uplifting programming available through this radio station. My fear is that if you allow the stations broadcast to be displaced by a LPFM station I will no longer be able to listen to this station. Living in a more rural area it is very hard for a dedicated station to make it without the use of repeaters.

Thank You - Thomas Crozier